Couder de Leon Company No. 1, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias

The hope has been expressed that the committee would be able to secure the presence of the Washington and Waynesburg companies of the Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, which served in the Philippines at the time Admiral Dewey was in command of the fleet.

Chairman Garvin has received a letter from Captain Alonso Porter, of the Washington company, from which it appears that his company may not be able to come. Says Captain Porter:

In reply to yours of January 18, will say that it would be next to impossible to get any number of the Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers in shape to make a respectable showing at your Dewey celebration, February 22. The majority of the men haven't any uniforms or equipment to go on parade with. The organization of the regiment is not complete yet in the National Guard. So we have no state equipment yet that we could use. However, I will see what can be done, and advise you as soon as possible.

Captain Thomas Crago, of the Waynesburg company, has not been heard from. An invitation was sent several days ago.

Chairman Garvin yesterday appointed the following committee on committees, which will assist him in naming the committees on reception and entertainment, each of which will be composed of from fifteen to 100 leading citizens: H. V. Arkle, R. M. Archer, H. C.
Ogden, Clarke Hamilton, Louis Colmar.

Yesterday afternoon, Judge Cranmer and Mr. C. W. Brockunier visited the site of Fort Henry, head of Main street hill, and agreed on the exact place for setting the Fort Henry tablet. It will be placed at the curb just at the brow of the hill, a few feet above the Win-gerter homestead.

The committee on arrangements, named Monday night, is called to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the office of Mr. Garvin, to take up the arranging of the details of the ceremonies to be held after the parade, including tablet setting and sword presentation. The committee is composed of the following: Messrs. C. W. Brockunier, G. L.
Cranmer, T. M. Garvin, Harry Levi, C.
A. Wingerter and George E. Sufel.

Letters of invitation were sent yesterday to President Charles James, of the Belmont Central Labor Union, of the over-the-river towns, and to President Albert L. Bauer, of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, requesting participation in the parade by all the labor unions of Wheeling and Belmont county.

COUER DE LEON ACCEPTS

Invitation to Take Part in Parade.
Officers Elected.

At a meeting of Couer de Leon Company No. 1, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, held last night at Pythian Castle, the invitation to turn out in the "Dewey Day" parade was accepted.
The company is enthusiastic and intends to make a fine showing in the demonstration.
A committee was appointed to arrange for the trip to the Detroit encampment, composed of Messrs. G. H.
Medick, W. C. Thomas and Brigadier General James H. Lancaster.
The company held its annual election, which resulted as follows: Captain—R. E. Schafer.
First Lieutenant—J. C. Medick.

THE HUB CLOTHIERS

In the Wake of The Stock Takers.

In getting in shape for the stock takers we have discovered that our zeal to have ample quantities and varieties has led us into too heavy purchases in some directions. These mistakes we shall remedy by a SPECIAL SALE, that will render most supreme advantage, by marking prices on these goods that will sweep them out in a rush. It is a sale of Hub merchandise, which means a great deal—means that it's strictly and wholly of reliable qualities—means that it is all fresh and new, up-to-date—means that the sacrifice is just as great as it purports to be—means that the policy of a brand new stock with each season is no fallacy, but is to be a fact, evidenced by these little short of startling reductions, exceeding in importance and interest any happenings for the present season.
We lose in such causes willingly. You may take during this week:

Any of our Covert Overcoats at three-quarters of their former plainly marked price.
Any of our Chinchilla Overcoats at three-quarters of their former plainly marked price.

Over 500 Men's Suits in almost every make of cloth and every stylish shade at a uniform price cut of 25 per cent. Greatest of all will be our great Trousers Sale. Take your choice of any pair in stock (with exception of Black, Clay, Worsted and Jeans Pants) at 25 per cent discount from our former low prices.

Hundreds of Boys' Two Piece Suits.
Hundreds of Boys' Plouse Suits.

Hundreds of Boys' Vestee Suits.
Hundreds of Boys' Roofers.

Hundreds of Boys' Top Coats, the choicest and best ever shown, at a discount of 25 per cent.

Don't delay; come as early in the week as possible so as to secure the best choice of the greatest of all offerings. Should you desire your money back for anything you buy during this sale, it's yours for the asking.

Foot Protection

is the best kind for you to adhere to at this season of the year if you want good health. Rapidly changing weather breeds colds and pneumonia as surely as warm, dry feet protects you against these diseases. It will cost you very little money, not more than $2.50, to retain your good health if you will let us furnish the shoes.

er, in the criminal court, has been continued to the next term.

In the circuit court, the case of Henry Beuter vs. Ella R. Morris was continued to the next term of court.

Last night, Officer May arrested a woman in an alley, who was too drunk to give in her name at police headquarters.

Carroll Club Auditorium to-night—Hanchett piano-forte lecture recital, auspices of the Daughters of the Revolution, for benefit of the Valley Forge fund.

Alice Rex and Flossie Wilbert were arrested last night for contempt of court, in not appearing in police court yesterday morning in the trial of the case against Louis Johnson. The women gave bond for their appearance in court this morning.

Yesterday afternoon the deed of assignment of Richard Donahoe, the Market street jeweler, was placed on record at Clerk Robertson's office. Squire Fitzpatrick is named as assignee. The liabilities are placed at about $900, with assets in excess of that amount.

An accident by which the cellar of the Thomson M. E. church, on the 44-land, was flooded, putting out all the fires, made it necessary to suspend the special services from Monday until Wednesday evening. Everything is now in order and the services will continue all week.

At Bethany College, in May, the annual contest of the Intercollegiate Oratorical Association will be held. The colleges in the association are Allegheny, Geneva, Thiel, Waynesburg, Bethany, West Virginia University and Westminster. The president is James Chambers, of Westminster.

To-night, in Kreutzer's hall, in Fulton, the Hope Volunteer Hose company will give a masque ball. The committee in charge has left nothing undone to contribute to the success of the affair.
Among the features will be the masquerade cake walk at 10 o'clock, and the prize walk at 11:30 o'clock. A special motor for Wheeling will leave at 2 a. m.
Bachman's orchestra will play.

Secretary William Fette, of the Wheeling bowling tournament, was tendered an agreeable surprise by the "Won't Go Home 'Till Morning Club," at his home out Caldwell's run, Monday evening, and a very pleasant evening was spent by the club. Messrs. John Roth, E. C. Fette, Mike Miller, Henry Yenke, Joe Bauman, and O. H. Auber were among the entertainers. The club will meet at the home of another member soon.

The Driller murder trial will begin in the criminal court, Judge Hugus on the bench, to-morrow morning. The accused, Joseph Driller, is charged with the murder of Louis Dittmar, on a houseboat at West Wheeling last summer. Driller was indicted at the last term of court, but the indictment was faulty, owing to the fact that a mistake was made in spelling the name of the victim. Mr. S. O. Boyce will conduct the defense.

Elected Directors.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wheeling Steel & Iron Company, was held yesterday afternoon.

Sufel, G. B. Caldwell, J. D. DuBois, Edward Hazlett, H. H. Hornbrook and

dends last week.

THE JURY DISAGREED

In the Case of Scheehle's Administratrix Against the City.

The long and tedious trial of the case of Scheehle's administratrix vs. the city of Wheeling, came to an inconclusive ending in the circuit court, Judge Hervey on the bench, last night at 9 o'clock.
The case went to the jury at 3 in the afternoon. No agreement having been reached at 6, a night session of court was held, but finally at 9 o'clock the jury reported its inability to agree and was thereupon dismissed. This will result in another trial of the case at the next term of court. Scheehle's widow sued for damages alleged to be caused through neglect of the city, by whom he was employed as an electric lamp trimmer. He was killed by a crossing of wires while trimming a lamp on the Island.
